

PRESIDENT McDONALD AND THE CHAPEL, STORER COLLEGE, HARPER'S FERRY, W. VA.

The institution is equipped with model buildings and grounds. It has one of the largest school libraries in West Virginia, offers several industrial courses without extra charge, and strives to give superior instruction in all courses. On Sundays there are three services in the Curtis Memorial Church. Every student is required to attend two of these (including Sunday-school) or two services at some other place. There is a prayer meeting on Wednesday evening. Every pupil is required to be present at the daily devotional exercises in the chapel, and all students are required to furnish themselves with Bibles.

High Point Normal and Industrial School, High Point, N. C.

Alfred J. Griffin, President

THE High Point Normal and Industrial School was founded in 1893 by the annual yearly meeting of Friends. Its property value is $40,000; its annual expenses, $8,500.

HIGH POINT NORMAL AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

COOKING CLASS, HIGH POINT NORMAL AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

In 1908 there were 216 male and 211 female students, ranging in age from six to twenty years. There were 6 male and 5 female Negro teachers. Towards the expenses, the city of High Point contributes $2,400; the balance is obtained from students, from the Society of Friends, and from the public.

It is the purpose of the institution to give to young men and women a practical academic education, a thorough industrial training, and to prepare teachers for the public schools.
